テーマ：	PechaKucha Night
担当者名：	Roger Palmer
開講時期：	後期：月曜 4・5・6限	募集定員：	25名
内容：	This project involves CUBE students in both making PechaKucha presentations and helping to manage and organise PechaKucha Night events at CUBE. In presenting, they will learn specific content knowledge about their specialist area while working on polishing their spoken English skills. They will learn about design of slide presentations and matching their message to the 20 slide, 20 second per slide format. In addition, they will be responsible for planning the event, finding presenters, and publicity to attract an audience. Keywords: presenting, managing, organising, planning, publicising
到達目標：	Upon completion of this course, students are expected to demonstrate the ability to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- design, prepare and deliver PechaKucha presentations</li> <li>- plan &amp; publicise formal public events (PKN Nishinomiya)</li> <li>- invite and liaise with presenters from a number of countries</li> </ul> work independently and in groups to manage an event
講義方法：	Students will work individually and in teams to improve presentations, both English content and public speaking. They will conduct fieldwork and interviews as they search for presenters and ideas on how to run PKN. They will do background research and come up with a blueprint on how to run and manage a formal public event.
準備学習：	Students will have to spend time organising the event inside and outside class. They will gain confidence from public speaking and contacting presenters. Success of the project depends on the running of a PKN event at CUBE. They must keep to deadlines and arrange group work. It requires commitment by all members and shared responsibility.
成績評価：	Evaluation will be based on PechaKucha presentations (25%), fieldwork (25%), making a PKN manual (25%) and managing/participating in PKN (25%).
欠席基準：	授業実施回数の3分の1(端数は切り捨て)以上を欠席した場合は、単位を修得することができません。
